

Reader's Advisory: Being the Resource Your Patrons Need

Monday, March 15, 2010

9:30 am—1:30 pm

HRLC Office, Denville

<http://www.hrlc.org/direct/highland.htm>

Attendance fee: $25

Course #C100315A

Reader's advisory is one of the most fundamental services of libraries. Yet, it can be one of the most stressful for librarians when patrons need immediate assistance in finding their next good read. With little time to think about their request, answering them can be challenging. In this workshop, you will learn how to use resources at your fingertips and keep your cool when approached for help. Novelist is a good start, but being a truly artful advisor for your patrons requires much more. If you've ever had a patron come up to you and ask "What do I read next?"—this workshop is for you! You will learn the best practices for staying cool and helping even the most savvy reader.

Presented by Rosalind Reisner, an expert in reader's advisory, author of "Read on.....Life Stories: Reading Lists for Every Taste" and WNBA-NYC Program co-chair; visit her blog "A Reader's Place" at <http://areadersplace.net/>.

Registration:

Please review our cancellation policy at: <http://www.hrlc.org/ce/cancelpolicy.htm>

Online: www.peopleware.net/2909

By phone: 1-800-NET-HRLC (973-664-1776)

Payment submission form: http://www.hrlc.org/ce/payment_form.pdf